Library is in Civil District Court Building, Corner Chartres and St. Ann Streets, Ground Floor.

RULES OF LIBRARY.

1. No one but members are allowed to use room or books

2. Members may introduce clients into the room.

3. Judges are ex-officio members.

4. No books shall be taken out of Library, except to Court, and returned same day.

5. Members may take books in person to Court. If messenger is sent, books are to be delivered only on written or printed orders, signed by member, pledging his honor that the book is not for any other person.

6. Librarian will see that all books taken during the day shall be returned and placed in proper place on shelves before Library is closed in afternoon of same day.

7. Members will be held responsible for all books taken out and not returned. When not returned, a bill for the value shall be sent to the member at once, and if not paid, turned over to Secretary for suit.

8. Every book taken out shall be charged to the member, on a book kept for the purpose, and marked "RETURNED," when it is returned.

9. Memoranda shall be kept of books called for not in Library, and reported to Library Committee.

10. Librarian shall attend and keep Library open, see that the porter cleans it, keeps ice water, and in cold weather fires lighted and kept burning, and electric lights and fans in order every legal day from 10 A. M. to 3:30 P. M.

11. Librarian must make no purchases, but report from time to time all supplies needed, such as paper, pens, pencils, coal, etc., to Library Committee.

12. Members are cordially invited to freely make suggestions to the Library Committee as to books that ought to be bought, and as to any other matters pertaining to the Library, which suggestions will be complied with, if revenues are sufficient; and, if not, they will be reported to Executive Committee for action

13. If all the books desired by members are not bought it is only because the resources are not sufficient. There are but two ways to increase the resources. Bring in new members, or increase dues of city members.

14. Lawyers residing out of New Orleans are elegible as full members. They are required to pay only dues of $5 a year, and no initiation fee.

15. Lawyers who have been admitted to bar over three years, residing in New Orleans, pay $25 initiation fee, and $10 dues a year. Those practicing less than three years pay $5 a year and afterwards the initiation and regular dues

16. Members, on applying to the Librarian, will be furnished with a pass key for 50 cents, with which they can obtain access to the Library day or night when the Library is not open.

NOTE.

1. A complete list of all the United States and State Reports is contained herein, whether these Reports are in the Library or not The broken sets are properly noted, while those sets totally lacking are indicated by a (*).

2. The majority of the State Reports are complete only up to the West Reporter System; which see for subsequent Reports, (Sections 30–32), page ——
